Dear Fatima Shaikh
Editorial Assistant
Current Research in Nutrition and Food Science

Many thanks for your email

Sorry...there's my question

Could you send me a notification letter accompanied by the editor signature about the acceptance of our manuscript to be published in the journal Current Research in Nutrition and Food Science, because this's very important to my sponsor to give us fund for publication?

Sorry, it's not enough just send by email the announcement without a signature from the journal editor

Forgive me if my request makes you unpleasant.

Thanks
